

The Angels Christmas Market in Hyde Park Winter Wonderland in London

In Hyde Park, in the heart of the cosmopolitan metropolis of London, the Angels Christmas Market is again a main attraction of the Hyde Park Winter Wonderland this Christmas season.

The different areas of the romantic Christmas market boast various hut arrangements, lovingly detailed decorative elements and diverse offerings – and have already fascinated millions of visitors! The different sub-markets each have their own unique charm: The blacksmith and sculptor provide artisanal performances in a small hut village, with integrated arts and crafts markets for both the young and old to marvel at. Those who prefer to be more active can prove their acrobatic skills on the rope ladder to enthusiastic audiences. - And you can quench your thirst and keep hunger at bay right next door with a visit to the rustic Jaegerwald (with a charcoal barbecue) or the Christmas Tree Bar.

Elsewhere, long, mood-lit rows of huts will entice you, within which a great product range will hold your attention. Here you can once more expect international gastronomic specialities.

The Hyde Park Winter Wonderland has been established for many years, attracts visitors domestically and from abroad, and it has become one of the most popular tourist attractions, both as a pre-Christmas shopping trip, and as part of the night-life scene in London. Here you can find the largest skating rink in London under the open sky, a Christmas circus, a gigantic Ferris wheel, historical carousels, an impressive mobile drop tower, traditional showmen from all over Europe, as well as numerous other attractive rides – and much more...

Professionally organised and artistically designed Christmas markets enjoy enormous popularity in Great Britain. The export of the German Christmas market culture with its diverse and extraordinary range of handicrafts, gift ideas, jewellery, art, and international gastronomic delicacies – as well as everything Christmassy – stand in stark contrast to the uniformity of the monotonous retail structure in the British Isles, which predominantly consists of chain stores.

„Oh, it's so unique!“, „Marvellous!“ and „Wonderful“ are exclamations that repeatedly confirm this. The hand-picked traders, artisans, and gastronomers all contribute to the unique Christmas market atmosphere being established long-term.
